FSN PITTSBURGH STATEMENT REGARDING PENGUINS GAME TRANSMISSION INTERRUPTION ON 4.23.09

The Penguins playoff game on FSN Pittsburgh on Thurs., April 23, 2009 went off the air at 8:06pm ET due to a lightning strike at the network's technical operations facility in Atlanta, GA. The strike disabled the facility's uplink capability and service was interrupted for approximately 30 minutes until a backup facility could resume transmission of the network's feed. We understand and apologize for the inconvenience and disappointment this may have caused the Penguins organization, the fans and all of our viewers. We at FSN Pittsburgh do not take these matters lightly and will continue to make it a priority to provide a quality viewing experience for our teams and their fans.
